WASHINGTON PARK MUDLARKS

A great downpour of rain just before the racing started at Washington Park yesterday rendered the course a sea of mud, although the bottom was hard and safe. The threatening weather was instrumental in keeping the attendance down, although there was a big crowd on hand at that. Mudlarks had the call and showed to advantage in every race.

No stake race was on the program, but some high class horses were entered especially in the fourth race, which was taken by that mud reveller Sam Fuller, who lay along within call of Lady Strathmore to the head of the stretch where he soon went up to her, and passing her in a bound came away and won well in hand by two and one-half lengths. Terminus finished second, a head in front of Rolling Boer, with Lady Strathmore lapped. Terminus was badly cut off at the club house turn and had to be taken wide to avoid pocketing. He made up ground gradually from there on and closed resolutely, but it is hardly probable he could have beaten the winner with clear sailing throughout. Lady Strathmore had a great deal of speed for a mile and then began to wobble and lurch. She was all out at the wire.

Trinity Bell fell into an easy berth in the fifth race, taking the track at barrier rise and holding an easy advantage all the way. She won as she pleased by seven lengths from Conundrum who beat the distressed Operator four for the place. The last named ran a short five furlongs and then showed plainly he is not enamored of a muddy track.

The third race—a dash of one and one-eighth miles—was productive of a decidedly close finish, none but the judges in the stand being in a position to say who positively won. The race was given to Ohnet, who got up in time under a vigorous ride by Sullivan to nose out Crockett who, although having an apparent winning advantage at the last eighth post, tired noticeably at the end. Ohnet came strongly in the last eighth on the inside rail and gradually wore the tiring Crockett down. Gawaine was a fair third three lengths away, having run at an even gait throughout.

While the horses were scoring at the post in the first race, jockey Coburn who was on Emma C. L. had one of the small bones of his left leg broken. In suddenly wheeling with his mount his leg struck the hip bone of another horse. He was taken to the jockey room and then removed to the hospital. The accident caused a delay of twenty minutes until master Ranch could be substituted. Educate was easily the best of the field, staying in front all the way and winning handily by three and one-half lengths from Fleuron, who beat Emma C. L. two and one-half for the place. Alice Dougherty was unlucky and not able to do herself justice in the going.

Sir Oliver took the youngster race handily, lying back of Evening Star until the stretch. He easily went to the front when the Star cracked and he won hands down by four lengths. Jaubert was two more in front of Evening Star, who stopped badly in the last eighth.

A fine card of six races is presented for this afternoon with the Kenwood Stakes as the central attraction. Here the speedy colts, Abe Frank, Ed Austin, Allan-a-Dale, Pentecost, Memnon, Eddie Busch, Jaubert and Lucien Appleby, are named to meet and curiosity will be rife to see how Allan-a-Dale will perform when in better company than he has met as yet. It will be an interesting race and one worth a journey to witness. A six furlongs sprint with Vulcan, Sevoy, Martimas, Annie Bain and Burie Bunton among the entrants.

spiring struggle, and a mile and an eighth handicap, for which Advance Guard, Gonfalon, Star Chamber, Monarka and Wild Pirate are carded to start will also afford a field for varying opinions. The other three races have filled well and hold out promise of diversion fully up to the Washington Park standard.

A meeting in Canada is recognized by the Western Jockey Club when held under the sanction of any turf authority which enforces the forfeit list and the rulings of the Western Jockey Club, including the disqualification of persons and horses for fraudulent practices.

The disqualification of the horse Sarner and jockeys J. T. Woods and B. Silvers was removed.

The application of C. A. Johnson for reinstatement was denied.

KEENE'S YEARLINGS.

An interesting letter from Lexington dealing with the horses at J. R. Keene's Castleton stud says:

"The brood mare list at Castleton now numbers seventy-seven head, and they represent the cream of the thoroughbred breeding world, having been gathered by the multi-millionaire owners regardless of cost, both in England and this country. There are many remarkable thoroughbreds at Castleton. In Ben My Winner—B. g. by Montana—Lola A. Went to post at 2:30. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Bonner was best and ran like a good one. Gunfire is rounding to again and finished strongly. Alibert saved ground on the rail throughout. Water Boy, a fine looker, under a pull to the stretch and going very easy at the end, ran a high class race for his first attempt. Past ran in improved form. Byrne of Roscrea ran much below his best form.

Winner—R. c. by Galore—Conjectrix. Went to post at 3:05. At post 8 minutes. Start good. Won with the first three driving. Contend, perfectly rated in front, was lucky in not being forced to his best in the first half. Bluff was poorly handled and carried wide on the turn, but under the whip finished strongly. Lucky Star broke badly and under a vigorous ride put up a strong race. Double Dummy and Seminole were closing up at the end, both having been interfered with in the first half.

Time, 1:00½.

Winner—Br. f. by Albert—Hoodoo. Went to post at 3:45. At post 8 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Hatasoo is a great filly, was under a strong pull throughout and was never extended. Disadvantage ran a remarkably fast and game race at the weights. Rossignol collided with Luciline in the first sixteenth which probably beat her for second money as she was closing fast at the end. Lady Viola, a supposed crackjack, was apparently suffering from sex troubles and under the circumstances ran an especially noteworthy race. Luciline's race was too bad to be true and Queen Hanover is still out of form. The others were outclassed.

Scratched—26333 Par Excellence, 115; Delagon, 110.

Winner—Br. c. by Conrad—Too Sweet. Went to post at 4:25. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Sweet Tooth was best, raced past the pacemakers on the turn as if they were standing still and was going away at the end. He will probably develop into a high class sprinter. Colonel Padden began slowly and was apparently outrun to the stretch, where he finished fast. He had worked a phenomenal trial before for this race. Bedeck is a sprinter pure and simple, and under a skillful ride ran a good race. Glennellie and Annie Thompson raced each other to a standstill in the first half, the first named leading on the turn. Annie Thompson will improve, as she was short.

KEENE'S YEARLINGS.

Chree, Messrs. Keene own the only mare which has ever produced an Oaks winner on American soil, and more than that, the only dam of an English Oaks winner that was ever on American soil. Winners of the Derby and victors in the St. Leger and 2,000 Guineas have been imported into this country, but no American has ever laid down enough money to induce an Englishman to part with an Oaks winner or the dam of one. As Cap and Bells is the first American production to win this classic event, her dam now has a new record among American brood mares of all time. Ben My Chree in conformation is an ideal brood mare, and, luckily for her aristocratic owners, has proven a regular breeder. Her yearling this year is an exceedingly high-typed bay colt, by Kingston, his only mark a bright star, and he resembles no little Cap and Bells at the same age. He is one of his owner's English Derby candidates for 1903, and will doubtless be on his way over the sea before many months, as he will be raced in England, both as a two and three-year-old. Ben My Chree's suckling is, like Cap and Bells, a filly, and, like the famous Oaks winner, is brown in color. She is a very rangy youngster and will be given a chance to repeat her half-sister's triumphs, as she will be entered in the Oaks of 1904. Her marks are a star and a little white on her right hind foot. She is also a daughter of Kingston. The other Derby candidates among this year's crop of yearlings are the brown colt by Kingston—Glide (dam of Skate), by Chippendale, brown colt, by Kingston—Katherine II. (dam of Petruccio, winner of the Brooklyn Derby in 1900), by St. Simon; chestnut colt, by Horoscope, dam Vera (dam of Tragedian), by Mortemer; chestnut colt, by Horoscope, dam Hand Maid, by Fellowcraft—this youngster bearing a striking resemblance to the great Tommy Atkins in color, markings, size and conformation; and a chestnut colt, by Kingston, dam Editha, sister to Melton, winner of the Derby and St. Leger. There are twenty-two other yearling colts at Castleton and nineteen fillies. Some of the latter will go to England, having classic engagements there, including the Oaks, while the others will carry the white and blue spots on the eastern tracks.

"A complete list of this great yearling collection follows, and it is questionable if any racing stable in this country ever had such a bunch of youngsters to pick from, and indications seems to point to the Keene stable, both in England and this country, being stronger in two-year-olds in 1902 than ever before. These colts and fillies will remain at Castleton in Major Daingerfield's care for a few weeks longer, when they will be shipped East and fully broken. The farm hands do no more than handle them to the halter, and they are never ridden until they reach the quarters of Trainer James Rowe. They are broken to ride in a day, and they never see their bluegrass home again until their turf career is at an end. The list is as follows:

Bay filly (half-sister to Conroy, winner of the Brooklyn Handicap), by Ben Brush.
Brown colt, by Kingston—Citronella (cost Messrs. Keene $14,000), by St. Simon.
Chestnut colt, brother to Outlander.
Brown colt, by Ben Brush—Frugal, by Miser.
Brown colt, by St. Leonards—Hampton Belle, by Hampton.
Chestnut colt, by Horoscope—Seeress, by Necromancer.
Chestnut colt (half-brother to Dr. Barlow), by Horoscope—Illogical.
Brown colt, by Kingston—Virginia Water, by Hampton.
Bay colt, by Ben Brush—Inerdale, by Gallard.
Bay colt, by Ben Brush—Fairy Slipper, by St. Serf.
Chestnut colt, by Chorister—White Rose, by Warwick.
Bay colt, (half-brother to Kimberly) by Chorister.
Chestnut colt, by Kingston—St. Sypris, by St. Gatien.
Chestnut colt, by Kingston—Cusbat, by Hermit.
Chestnut colt, brother to Annie Thompson.
Bay colt, by Kingston—Silver Ball.
Bay colt, by Kingston—Flying Squadron, by Saraband.
Bay colt, by Galore—Ermine, by Rossington.
Bay colt, by Handspring—Gloaming, by Sir Modred.

Winner—B. g. by Mars—B. & S.
Went to post at 4:55. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Cephalalgia was lucky to win under a first-class ride. Holland, but for pecking at the last hurdle, would have won easily and was running much the fastest at the end. Hopful displayed much speed and hung on well in spite of the excessive early use made of him. Monroa Dotrina had no mishaps, but was poorly handled. He received a cowardly ride but for which he would probably have made a strong bid for the race. Jingle Ball went lame badly when going well.

Time, 21½, 49½, 1:14½, 1:40½, 1:54, 2:07, 2:20½.
Winner—Br. f. by Candlemas—Balaklava.
Went to post at 5:25. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Kamara received a perfect ride and a vigorous finish and that won for her. She handled the weight well and showed great gameness. Arden appeared to have the entire field driving behind him at one time and although tiring at the end hung on unusually well. At the weights Latson was best and should have won by a comfortable margin, but his inexperienced jockey was a great hindrance in the closing drive and messed the horse about. Humboldt was right there throughout. Round Up sulked during the race, but warmed up to his work fairly and ran away two miles. The Amazon tired.
Scratched—(26424) Cephalalgia, 92.
Kamara, show, out. Arden, show, 1 to 2. Latson, show, 4 to 5.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

The stewards of the Jockey Club held a meeting at the Sheepshead Bay track Saturday afternoon. August Belmont, J. F. Bradford, T. R. Hitchcock, James R. Keene and Andrew Miller were present. Jockey Combs, who rode an unsatisfactory race on Wax Taper last Tuesday, had his license revoked. W. S. Vosburgh was appointed steward to represent the Jockey Club at the Brighton Beach Racing Association's meeting. On the recommendation of the stewards of the National Steeplechase and Hunt Association, the mare Kassela and the gelding Salesman were reinstated for steeplechase and hurdle races. The following licenses were granted:

Jockeys—Dennis Desmond, James Fitzsimmons, M. Henderson, Richard Head, Burt Knapp, A. Powell, Edward Phelan, Eugene Snedecker, H. Shields, H. Vittoe.
Trainers—H. B. Blair, E. Burrows, John Chapman, George Connell, J. B. Dyer, James E. Dorsey, W. E. Franch, Joseph B. Ferguson, W. B. Howell, S. N. Holman, Frank Jones, George A. Luckey, John McKee, John H. Shepard, Howard Williams, D. Withers and Louis Guton.

A dispatch from San Francisco, Saturday, says: "Advices from Honolulu are to the effect that Prince David has sworn out two warrants for the arrest of W. H. Cunningham and J. Morgan, two well-known local turfmen, on a charge of conspiracy, alleging they attempted to hire his jockey to drug the horse Weller in a on June 14. Weller is one of the prince's horses and was a strong favorite in the betting until the evening before the race, when his stock fell under heavy betting against him. The jockey informed the prince that the defendants had offered a large bribe to him to dope the horse before the race. Weller was an easy winner in the race. The scandal has created quite a sensation here, being the first of the kind in a long series of Kamehameha Day races."

Matt Simpson, that has done such good work for "Father Bill" Daly, was sold before the Bay Hurdle Handicap Thursday and carried the colors of his new owner, J. H. McCormick, in that event.

THE HOLMDEL SALE.

Before the races began at Sheephead Bay Saturday the yearlings from the Holmdel Stud, the property of Gideon & Daly, were sold in the Fasig-Tipton Company's paddocks opposite the track. A large crowd was present, and the bidding as a general thing was lively. It was announced that as this was a partnership sale and as both John Daly and David Gideon raised horses each received the privilege of bidding on the youngsters. Daly did not do any bidding but Gideon did, and among his purchases was the colt by His Highness—Carrie C., a brother to Jean Beraud. The youngster brought the top price of the sale, $10,300. Lew Elmore was Gideon's opponent. Elmore and Gideon also had another battle for Futurita, a filly by His Highness—Butterflies, which has the reputation of being by and out of a Futurity winner. NOTES OF THE TURF.

The yearling bay filly by His Highness—Butterflies, both winners of the Futurity Stakes, has been named Futurita by her breeders, Messrs. Gideon & Daly. The filly is royally bred, and if she races as well as she has been named she will turn out to be a good one. She has been nominated in the Futurity Stakes of 1902, and should she be fortunate enough to win it would be a great triumph for logical breeding. In any event, the future of this young miss will be watched with interest.

Mr. Clarence Mackay is reported to have purchased from S. C. Hildreth the fast two-year-old colt Brunswick, by St. Carlo—Sloe, for $12,000. Brunswick was a sensational performer at San Francisco, four and one-half furlongs in 53½ being among his winning performances. On his California form he is worth the sum said to have been paid for him.

Went to post at 4:45. At post 11 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second driving. This was a falsey run race. Peaceful, Peter Duryea and Skillman bumped each other all the way in a bad jam. Blink and Ethel Wheat had free going. Blink showed much speed and finished strongly. Ethel Wheat seemed to dislike the going and did not run her best race. Peter Duryea came up the hill at the finish, going like a locomotive. He had to go around his horses and was going strongest at the end. Peaceful likes an adamant track. He was badly troubled in the jam. Skillman quit in the stretch, tired out by weight, interference and the hill.

Went to post at 2:30. At post 20 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Educate, after passing beyond the first quarter, easily took command and was never in trouble afterward. Fleuron was right there all the way and showed a liking for the sloppy going. Emma C. L. ran well for five-eighths and then tired badly. Suave stopped in the last sixteenth. Alice Dougherty was hopelessly cut off just before the stretch entry and came near going down. The mishap threw her clear out of the race. Harney had no speed at all. Coburn was kicked while at the post on Emma C. L. and a new jockey was substituted. This was the cause of the long delay.
